Dear Parent(s),

Welcome to the 2014-2015 school year! During language arts class, students and I have been involved in various community building activities – some writing, some speaking – so that I get to know each of them better. Now, I'm asking for your help and insight to continue this process.

Please drop me a line (either on paper or via email) that shares anything you feel will help me better teach your child this year. Each child is unique in his/her own way, and no one knows this better than you. You might share your child's likes and dislikes, hopes and fears, past successes or past struggles ... anything you would like to pass on to me.

You may email your message to me at anne.moege@k12.sd.us or have your child turn your note in to me at school. I understand how busy schedules can get and ask that you write your message any time during September or October.

Finally, if you have questions about homework, resources, ICU, or my class in general, please check out my website: elamoege.weebly.com. I also add weekly updates to a parent blog to inform you of what we've been up to. If you have questions about anything, please don't hesitate email me or to give me a call at the school: 995-3051.

Thank you for your cooperation. I look forward to a great year!
